Very helpful to any or all category of folks. It is written in simple phrases rather than difficult to understand. It's been developed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly just after I finished reading this pdf in which basically transformed me, modified the way in my opinion.

I testify the Gospel of the grace of God. --St. Paul. APHILOSOPHER has said, The experience of one rational being is of interest to all who become cognizant of it. This is because we are so constituted as to be similarly affected by like causes. Let half a dozen of persons, far gone with pulmonary consumption, publish to the world their complete cure by the same remedy, and the glad news would flash across the continents and beneath the seas, irradiating with hope myriads of sick chambers. Hence the value of testimony. Justice, in her walk through the earth, leans upon this staff. The entire science of medicine and art of healing have been founded upon it. The shop of the apothecary has been filled through the attestations of cures. Who can better authenticate the healing than the healed patient? Who better than the cleansed soul can certify his spiritual transfiguration, and the power by which it was accomplished? Experience is one of the chief elements of evangelical power. On critical occasions, St. Paul, the master logician, when liberty, or even life, hung on the balance of a Roman governor's will, and some most persuasive argument was needed, told the simple story of his conversion from being a persecutor to a preacher of the faith he once destroyed. In fact, his commission, three times renewed, was not to preach, but to testify. When the omnipresent Jesus, as Bishop Simpson...
