Excerpt: . partaking of the bread and wine at the Lord s table. Many thousands of the grown-up population in London are what we call communicants, at our different places of worship.--But one fears that even they are not all real worshippers. You remember what hypocrite partook with Christ, at the first Lord s supper. Fifth scholar.--Judas Iscariot. Teacher.-And Judas--? Fourth scholar.--Betrayed Christ. Teacher.--And so many a person who partakes of the communion of the body and blood of Christ, may inwardly care little for Christ, and at last become a cast away. Now this is fearful work. How do you think we ought to be affected by the fact, that so few will be found at the right hand? Fourth scholar.--We should take care that we are among the number. Teacher.--Yes. When Christ was asked upon earth, whether there were few that should be...
