Essay from the year 2012 in the subject Communications - Intercultural Communication, grade: 2, 3, Karlshochschule International University, course: Intercultural Communicative Competence, language: English, abstract: The debate on the concept of Intercultural Competence became a wide field of interest in recent years which could be especially seen on the discourse in the German-speaking world (Cf. Bolton, 2006; Rathje 2007). Furthermore, it gained importance in society due to the development towards an intercultural society in Germany and the question for integration (Cf. Seifert 2012). Business sector and governments are therefore in search for Intercultural Competence in order to counter these issues (ibid.). This item ships from multiple locations.
