Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Public School Methods, Vol. 3 The chapters in volumes Three, Four and Five of Public School Methods have been written for teachers in the grades above the primary and for those rural teachers who have classes that have been at least three years in school. The chapters comprise a strong series for daily use in the school room, a simple, practical guide in the various problems which are found in every hour of recitation, in every class. The work given in these last three volumes includes a discussion of methods of teaching all the branches required in the intermediate and grammar grades of the public schools, and, in addition, chapters on methods in construction work, drawing, domestic science and vocal music, and a large number of helpful type studies. The outlined work on each branch presents the methods of that branch in each of the grades in which it is studied; so whatever her grade the teacher will find specific help in the pages of these books. Correlated subjects are tied together by cross references,...
